

HAVE YOU TRIED PAXTINE?

The Great Toilet Germicide?

You don't have to pay 50c or $1.00 a pint for bacterian antiseptics or peroxide. You can make 16 pints of a more cleansing, germicidal, healing and deodorizing antiseptic solution with one 25c box of Paxtine—a soluble antiseptic powder, obtainable at any drug store.

Paxtine destroys germs that cause disease, decay and odors—that is why it is the best mouth wash and gargle, and why it purifies the breath, cleanses and preserves the teeth better than ordinary dentifrices, and in some bathing it completely eradicates perspiration and other disagreeable body odors. Every family woman appreciates this and its many other toilet and hygienic uses.

Paxtine is splendid for sore throat, inflamed eyes and to purify mouth and breath after smoking. You can get Paxtine Toilet Antiseptic at any drug store, price 25c and 50c, or by mail postpaid from The Paxtine Sales Co., Boston, Mass., who will send you a free sample if you would like to try it before buying.

GOING INTO RIVER OR A

Montville Woman Was Caught Just as She Was Jumping From Steamboat Wharf—J. B. Alofsin Attracted by Her Actions Holds Her on Land.

There was much excitement on Friday afternoon at the Steamboat wharf when a woman whose name was said to be Mrs. Baker, of Montville, was prevented from jumping off the dock and crossing the river. As she worked her way toward the dock and was attracted by her peculiar actions. That she did not succeed in getting into the water to Mr. Alofsin's quick work. Had she gotten into the water the saving of her from drowning might have been a particularly hard problem at that point.

Mr. Alofsin was at the wharf to get some freight, and noticed Mrs. Baker crossing the track, and noted that she came onto the dock. As he worked he noted where she was going, and from her actions he was giving more attention to her than he would have ordinarily. He saw her throw her hands in the air and start to run. This indicated to him it was time to act, and he hastened after her and managed to catch hold of her just as she was about to jump. He got hold of her tight enough so that she did not go away, and he took her away from the edge to a point of safety.

Asking her what the matter was and what she was trying to do, she gazed at him and said, "Let me go. I want to get a drink." She did not appear to realize that there was any danger in leaping into the river, or, if she did, she gave no indication of it. Mr. Alofsin said that if he had not caught her just as he did she would have been in the water in another minute. It is thought the hot weather might have had a bad effect upon her while in the city. She is a large woman, weighing about 175 pounds, and it was no easy task to restrain her, said Mr. Alofsin.

She was taken away from the dock by a friend and later went to her home in Montville. There was a large number attracted by the affair.

ALL ARRANGEMENTS FOR SALVATION ARMY OUTING

Two Special Cars Will Carry 250 to Pleasant View—Lieutenant Dunn Leaves This Month.

Capt. C. E. Douglass of the Salvation Army states that all arrangements have been completed for the outing at Pleasant View on Wednesday next, July 12, leaving Franklin square at 5 o'clock. Already more people have asked for tickets than can be accommodated, 225 passports to a day of enjoyment by the shores of the ocean having already been distributed, which means that including their own people the army will have 550 in all on the outing. Two cars will convey right through to Pleasant View, where the children will be given one of the times of their lives. Captain Douglass has all but a few dollars of the money needed and a little help at the kettle or otherwise will be as much appreciated as ever.

Starting July 13, the captain will enjoy a well earned ten-day furlough, which he will spend with Mrs. Douglass with relatives up the Hudson. On July 15 he will lose the services of Lieut. John Dunn of Rockville, who came here in February direct from the New York training college and is now to be transferred. Lieutenant Dunn will be given one of the times of their lives. His new field has not been announced.

NORWEGIAN STEAMSHIP LINE INVESTIGATED.

Suggested by Norwich Man and Committee Sees the Officials.

In the senate Thursday prior to the passage of the $1,000,000 New London harbor appropriation bill, Senator Mayor Bryan P. Mahan revealed in public for the first time the reason for the visit of himself, Captain Thomas Hamilton, of the New London Business Men's association and Charles A. Swanson, of New York on Monday last, where they were in conference with E. T. Christensen and H. M. Tulloch, representatives of the new Norwegian line of steamships, which will within a year be in operation between Norway and this country. It was deemed advisable not to mention the visit in the press until the harbor bill had been brought up in the senate, and for that reason nothing was printed in reference to it then.

As a result of their conference with the steamship representatives in New York, the leading American stockholders of the company, who reside in St. Paul, Minn., will come on to investigate the situation, and there is every likelihood that New London will be recommended as the American terminal of the trans-Atlantic line. New York was canvassed thoroughly by representatives of the company, and the only dockage that could be found for the steamships was at South Brooklyn, where one-half of one side of a pier 1,400 feet long could be rented for $25,000 a year. New London looked better than that to the company's men.

As stated at the time of the preliminary announcement, two steamships are now building in Norway and two more will be started shortly. The Norwegian government is under agreement to pay $17,500 to the company for three years, in addition to a contract for carrying the mails. The export freight business from Norway to this country is enormous, so there is no doubt as to the need of the new line, which will be the first direct from that country here.

The New London officials were brought into touch with this line by Charles W. Pearson, secretary of the Norwich Business Men's association.

LIVED ALMOST HALF-CENTURY WITH BULLET NEAR HEART

Josiah C. Palmer, Civil War Veteran, Finally Succumbs to Heat Wave.

Josiah C. Palmer, 66 years old, died at the Hartford hospital about 5 o'clock Friday morning from the effects of the recent heat. He was stricken on the streets Tuesday afternoon, and taken to this hospital. His son, Forest W. Palmer, with whom he lived at No. 50 Pearl street, Hartford, made frequent trips to the hospital to see his father. Mr. Palmer, senior, was all the while anxious to come home and Thursday, when the son reached the hospital the father had been dressed and waiting for two hours to go home. The son took the older man for a short ride and then home. He had not been home long before he grew worse, and was removed to the hospital again about 2 p. m., and became delirious.

Mr. Palmer was born in Colchester, and lived about forty years ago in the war for the union, and was a member of Company E, Eighteenth Connecticut volunteers. He served throughout the war, and was badly wounded, a spent ball striking him under the left ear and passing down lodged near his temple, while it was still remained. He was one of the first night clerks in the Hartford post-office and remained there about fifteen years, being part of the time attendant of the general delivery window and also on the stamp window. Leaving the postoffice, he was employed for about a dozen years by the Travelers Insurance company, but for the past few years had retired from active pursuits. His wife died about five years ago and was buried at New London.

AUTOIST NOT BLAMED FOR RUNNING AWAY.

To Have Remained Would Have Made Him Witness Against Himself.

New York, July 7.—The appellate division of the supreme court this afternoon held an opinion in the case of Edward T. Rosenheimer, the wealthy manufacturer, for running away from the scene of the automobile collision in which Miss Grace Hough was killed and two persons injured some time ago. Rosenheimer had already been acquitted by a jury at his trial on a charge of causing the death of a girl, and was under indictment charging felony in running away from the accident.

The indictment was found under a state law which the appellate division found at variance with the constitution.

HANDS BURNED LIKE FIRE

"I can truthfully say Cuticura Remedies have cured me of four long years of excruciating skin disease. About four years ago I noticed some little pimples coming on my little finger, and not giving it any attention, it soon became worse and spread all over my hands. If I would have them in water for a long time, they would burn like fire and large cracks would come. I can't tell you how much I suffered. I used all the salves I could think of, I went to three different doctors, but all to no good. The only relief I got was scratching. So after hearing so much about the wonderful Cuticura Remedies, I purchased one complete set, and after using them three days my hands were much better. To-day my hands are entirely well, one set being all I used." (Signed) Miss Etta Barber, R.F.D. 2, Spring Branch, Me., Sept. 28, 1910.

FLEECE OUT OF $115 BY A BUNCO STEERER.

Portland Man Has a Bitter Experience in the "Big City."

New York, July 7.—John Hayes of Portland, Me., started out today to find a job as a stonemason, and met an engaging individual who described himself as George C. Hamilton of Brooklyn, a dealer in monuments. Hamilton hired Hayes on the spot, but explained that he had a number of bills to pay, and invited Hayes to accompany him in the rounds. At one place Hamilton stopped, he said, to have a check for $251 cashed by a friend. The friend was out, and Hamilton, in apparent distress, asked Hayes to oblige him by lending him $115, holding the check as security. Hayes did so, although it left him but $10 of his savings, and remained an hour and a half, check in hand, waiting for Hamilton to return. Then he went to a police station. The police are looking for Hamilton.
